

Final stage

XX International Children's Art Competition "Golden Easel in the Footsteps of Cyrus Andrey"

The following people are invited to participate in the final stage:

1. Winners of the internal stage of the competition;
2. Winners of the online voting;

The programme of activities

JANUARY 10 – JANUARY 31, 2022 – finalists confirm their participation by filling out a questionnaire.
February 05 – April 20, 2022 – training (master classes in religious art and composition) is conducted for the finalists online.

The list of master classes, artists and links to participate online will be provided on the site on January 31, 2022.

May 28 – May 30, 2022 — final stage * (online participation is available)

The participants of the final stage make a monumental painting on a 250-meter canvas placed in the Metropolitan Gardens of the St. George's Cathedral in Lviv on a predetermined theme:

1. Kyivan Rus' (based on the works of famous and unknown artists who have worked and are working in religious art).
2. Adam and Eve based on the works of Albrecht Dürer, Pablo Picasso and others.
3. Creative topics submitted by the finalists, based on the results of training in master classes.

* Online participation option is available too. The participant has to create the painting on the one of the theme above and send short film story (up to 5 min). Detailed information will be send to the participants later.

The painting of the monumental composition on religious themes is created by the participants of the final 5 min stage on the canvas with acrylic paints under the direction of Pavlo Shachko, a student of the Lviv National Academy of Arts, winner of the International Children's Art Competitions "Golden Easel", who were awarded the Grand Prix.

The composition created by the finalists marks the opening of the "Little Louvre of the Golden Easel Children's Gallery" in Lviv, which is scheduled to open in 2023 in the Metropolitan Gardens, to revive the Lviv Children's Gallery.

May 28 – 30, 2022 (daily)

9.00 – registration of participants. St. George Square in Lviv

10.00–18.00 – process of creating a composition

May 31, 2022

10.00–12.00 – work of the Jury

June 01, 2022 – Children's Art Festival, dedicated to Children's Day

Location: Metropolitan Gardens of St. George's Cathedral in Lviv.

10.00 – Blessed Prayer for children's health and peace in Ukraine sent by Archbishop of Lviv Metropolitan Igor Vozniak.

11.00–13.00

- Opening of monumental compositions
- Awarding the finalists
- Concert with the participation of Ukrainian artists.

The finalists will be awarded gold medals, gifts, certificates to take part in master classes, which will be held on June 02-03, 2022 at the Museum of Folk Architecture and Life in Lviv. The winners of the final stage will be awarded vouchers to the Art Residence in Slavske.

June 02–03, 2022 — master classes for finalists.

Location: Museums of Folk Architecture and Life in Lviv.

Based on the results of the participants' creative activity in 2022-2023, it is planned to create expositions of virtual children's masterpieces and open a children's museum of children's masterpieces "Little Louvre of the Golden Easel" in the Metropolitan Gardens.

Attention! The program may be updated and changed. Please see the information on the website artclass.lviv.ua